

FLY AWAY Lyrics (Jo March)

LONGING FOR MY CHILDHOOD THOUGH MY LIFE AWAITS
ME,
TRYING TO HOLD ONTO ALL THE MOMENTS THAT HAVE PASSED.
HELD CAPTIVE BY MY MEM'RIES, I MUST STOP
PRETENDING –
LIVING IN A WORLD I KNOW CAN NEVER LAST.

YET STILL I STAND HERE, WATCHING, AS MY LIFE MOVES
PAST ME –
WAITING FOR TOMORROW TO COME TAKE ME BY THE HAND.
ALTHOUGH I DREAM OF SUNLIGHT AS THE DAY IS DAWNING,
I SEEK THE CONSTANT SAFETY OF NIGHT DESPITE ALL I'D PLANNED.

AM I READY TO EMBRACE THE FUTURE THAT I FACE?
THERE MUST BE SOMETHING MORE THAN THIS FAMILIAR PLACE.

THEN, WE WERE ONLY CHILDREN, NEVER CONTEMPLATING
WORRIES OF TOMORROW NOR THE QUESTIONS IN OUR HEARTS
BELIEVING IN FOREVER AS WE LIVED FOR TODAY –
I NEVER DREAMED THAT WE'D BE FORCED TO FLY AWAY.

SOMETHING EXCITING IS OUT THERE, MY GREATEST ADVENTURE;
IT BECKONS ME HIGHER –

I'LL RISE TO THE CALLING
AND REACH OUT TO TOUCH THE SKY.

IF LIFE IS LIKE A STORY, ONLY TURNING PAGES –
NEVER REALLY KNOWING WHAT ADVENTURES LIE AHEAD,
THE FUTURE IS MY PAPER AND MY COURAGE MY PEN –
I WILL LEARN AS I LIVE THEN TURN THE PAGES ONCE AGAIN.

I'LL SPREAD MY WINGS, TAKING TO THE SKY –
NEVER LOOK BACK, NEVER CRY.
HOW COULD I VENTURE TO STAY WHEN NOW IT'S TIME TO FLY AWAY?

Property of Little Women Enterprises, LLC